Mom is going down to Grandma's tomorrow morning and stay until Saturday night.

Mom says to tell you to go into Woolworth's and anything in there will be what she wants for ~~the~~ Christmas. She says she wants, ~~just~~ ^{just} gloves, hospital pin, a brooch like ours, silk stockings, silk bloomers, mesh bag, ^{shoes} This is all she can think of now.

I want silk stockings, a pocket book but I would like to pick out my own, shoes, music, books. I can't think of any thing more just now.

Miss Gallagher asked me the other day if you were at Wyoming and what course you were taking up.

I walked to school this morning with Mr. Bender.

Edith has gone to Redwies for a few days. She is going to speak at either the church or school. I don't know which and she has to rehearse tonight. We had a pigeon dinner Sunday night. Um yum it was good. We each had one. We'll see if there is any left by the time you get here. We took one down to Aunt Jennie.
